

Human Trafficking Prevention Plan

Formula 1 USGP, Austin Texas

October 19th-21th, 2018.

Qualifications

This plan is based on information gathered from the National Human Trafficking Resource Center website and the Texas Attorney General website. This plan is a work in progress and will continue to develop as information becomes readily available. Public safety and emergency services are the highest priority in the development of this plan.

Introduction

Circuit of The Americas (COTA), located in Travis County, TX, approximately 16 miles southeast of the central business district of the City of Austin, on FM Highway 812, 2 miles east of SH 130, was selected to host the 2018 Formula 1 US Grand Prix. This important and prestigious United States Grand Prix racing event will take place over three days on October 19th through 21st with Sunday the largest expected attendance of approximately 100,000 +/- attendees.

Mission Statement

Ensure a safe space for spectators, participants, media, sponsors, staff, volunteers, and special guests, free of human trafficking.

General Overview

COTA will include in its Event Action Plan “EAP” a suspicious activity document which will identify the red flags for human trafficking and the steps to take if suspicion arises. COTA Command will call the National Human Trafficking Hotline 1-888-3737-88. COTA Command will work with local law enforcement to identify any suspicious activity as it relates to the trafficking of humans. During this large event we will be working with federal partners including the FBI and Homeland Security. This includes on duty law enforcement officers throughout the facility.
